

Web-Based Rehabilitation Program with Exo-Skeletal Suit

Design a web-based neuromuscular re-education program for stroke patients in partnership with stroke rehabilitation exo-skeletal suit.

The rehabilitation tool coupled with the web-based neuromuscular re-education program will offer to stroke patients to rehabilitate from home.

Phase I is a website with instructional videos to teach patients how use the accompanying suit as well as various rehabilitation therapies.

Contact Information:

Delaney Shuttler, Student
Carole South-Winter, Professor
University of South Dakota
carole.south-winter@usd.edu

