

What's at the heart of my stroke?

Stroke is the No. 5 cause of death in the United States. A stroke of unknown cause, or cryptogenic stroke, provides few answers. By collaborating with your physician, you can take action to potentially find the cause and help prevent a second stroke, which is 16 times more likely to be fatal.

Talk to your doctor to take the first step towards understanding the source of your cryptogenic stroke.

www.StrokeAssociation.org/cs

Medtronic

Supports the American Heart Association/
American Stroke Association's Cryptogenic Stroke Initiative.